

entries arranged alphabetically by names of rent-payers.

- Liber 51—Debt Books 1745-1755 Somerset County. Two debt books for the years 1745 and 1755, bound together, each containing entries as above. The debt book labelled "1745" has no authentic date mark; it has 120 pages; 1755 has 209 pages plus various additional short lists of lands and part of an index. The first of these volumes is arranged alphabetically by names of rent-payers, the second is not.
- Liber 52—Debt Books 1745-1755 Worcester County. Two debt books for the years 1745 and 1755, bound together, each containing entries as above. The 1745 debt book has 177 pages, 1755 has 205 pages plus various additional lists of lands. No alphabetical arrangement.
- Liber 53—Debt Books 1762-1768-1769-1771-1774 Worcester County. Five books for the above-mentioned years, bound together, each containing entries as above. The debt book for 1762 has 115 pages; 1768 has 42 pages; 1769 has 146 pages plus five pages of additional rent roll entries; 1771 has 40 pages, the first four missing; 1774 has 139 pages. All these volumes have the entries arranged alphabetically by names of rent-payers.
- Liber 54—Debt Books Additional for Worcester, Somerset, Talbot, Cecil, Dorchester, Kent. Eight small volumes bound together, each containing short debt books ranging in date from 1734 to 1758 for additional rent rolls of Cecil, Kent, Dorchester, Talbot, Worcester and Somerset Counties. The latter two counties have two volumes and the other one volume each. No alphabetical arrangement.⁸⁷

⁸⁷ In addition to the above numbered series of debt books, the Land Office also has three unbound debt books, one, a duplicate of the Queen Anne's Debt Book for 1734 and the other two, undated, from Cecil County.